County Executive Officer: Alison Lehman

75. SR 19-0580 Review of the analysis and recommendation for the future use of Juvenile Hall, and request for direction to staff.

ACTION TAKEN: Ms. Mali Dyck, Assistant County Executive Officer, introduced Mr. Michael Ertola, Chief Probation Officer, who spoke briefly regarding the history of the Juvenile Hall.
Chief Ertola noted that the Grand Jury has twice, since 2013, recommended closing of the Hall and that in 2019 the average daily population was 5 juveniles.

Ms. Dyck provided information regarding the Interdepartmental Workgroup formed to study the best use of the Juvenile Hall Facility and make recommendations to the Board. She reviewed the considerations taken into account for the recommendation, as well as stakeholder's concerns. Chief Ertola reported on the Federal Department of Justice's (DOJ) funding portion of the Juvenile Hall, and the requirement that the facility remains under the umbrella of criminal justice. He reviewed the options the County has regarding these funding requirements going forward.

Chief Ertola reviewed additional considerations and reported that the Stakeholder Workgroup recommendation is to change the use of the facility from a Juvenile Detention Facility to a Youth Center. He explained that the Youth Center would: 1) expand the County's local youth services programs; 2) continue to provide for detention and prevention programming; 3) increase innovative youth prevention programs; 4) move the Sheriff's Dispatch to the facility; and 5) expand the Jail Medical Unit into the Dispatch area. Staff is recommending the facility be renamed to the Nevada County Carl F. Bryan II Youth Center.

Board questioning and discussion ensued.

By consensus, the Board members shared their support of staff's recommendations.

Chairman Anderson provided an opportunity for public comment. The following member of the public provided comments: Mr. Chuck Coover, Vice-Chairman, Juvenile Justice/Delinquency Prevention Commission and District I resident. There being no further public comment, Chairman Anderson closed public comment.

AFTERNOON SESSION

SCHEDULED ITEM: 1:30 P.M.

Planning Director: Brian Foss

81. SR 19-0583
Public hearing to consider the Planning Commission’s May 23, 2019, 4-0, 1-absent recommendation to the Nevada County Board of Supervisors, to adopt a Resolution approving the proposed Negative Declaration (EIS19-0001), prepared in accordance with the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) for the proposed amendments to the Nevada County General Plan, Chapter 8, Housing Element; and to adopt a Resolution approving the revisions to the Nevada County General Plan, Chapter 8, Housing Element (GPT19-0001) that was previously adopted by Nevada County in 2014. State Housing Element Law (Government Code Section 65580 (et.seq.)) mandates that local governments must adequately plan to meet the existing and projected housing needs of all economic segments of the community. Upon its adoption, the 2019-2027 Housing Element will become part of the Nevada County General Plan.

ACTION TAKEN: Chairman Anderson introduced the public hearing. Mr. Brian Foss, Planning Director, and Mr. Matt Kelley, Senior Planner, provided a PowerPoint presentation regarding the proposed revisions to the Nevada County General Plan, Chapter 8, Housing Element. Mr. Kelley reviewed the process timeline along with the key housing element requirements addressed within the 2019-2027 Housing Element. He provided a Regional Housing Need Allocation Comparison, showing the income category units that must be accommodated within the 8-year period. Mr. Kelley reported that the Regional Housing Need Allocation provides for 2,062 total units, including 842 low- and very-low income units. Additional changes include revisions related to: added Environmental Justice Program information; Accessory Dwelling Units to reflect adoption of Ordinance 2462; per Board direction, a program for the identification of incentives for development of affordable housing for the above-moderate income range; a policy to reflect projects which qualify for permit streamlining. As a result of public input, the County will review all proposed development for consistency with fire safe policies. Additionally, language was introduced for consistency pursuant to State Housing and Community Development (HCD) laws. Mr. Kelley explained the importance of the Housing Element, which addresses the County's affordable housing goals, provides for the receipt of grants and loan programs, and validates the County's General Plan.
Mr. Kelley reported that the Planning Commission approved the Housing Element at their May 23, 2019 meeting, and recommended the Board adopt the Resolution proposing the Negative Declaration and adopt the Resolution amending the Housing Element.

Board questioning ensued.

Supervisor Miller asked about the Golden State Finance Authority Rural County Representatives of California (RCRC) program and if this program could be used or indicated in the Housing Element. Mr. Foss said staff would research the possibility and if appropriate, staff will add it to the list.

Mr. Foss responded to questioning regarding low- to very-low units, supportive housing, and stock housing plans.

Chairman Anderson opened the public hearing for public comment. The following members of the public provided public comment: Ms. Meegan Kelly, District 2 resident; and Ms. Susan Healy-Harman, District 2 resident.

There being no further public comment, Chairman Anderson closed public comment.

Mr. Foss responded to public concerns regarding the rising housing costs at mobile home parks. He suggested that language within the Housing Element could be clarified to apply appropriate programs and policies to mobile homes and discussion has taken place regarding rent space stabilization. Ms. Alison Lehman, County Executive Officer, reported that staff is researching this issue and suggested it be brought forward at the Board's January 2020 Workshop. The Board members provided their support for investigating the issue further and added interest in providing wording in the Housing Element regarding senior housing.

Chairman Anderson thanked Mr. Foss and Mr. Kelley for the presentation.

Adopted.
