

C. Special Notification to Pathologist

The decedent's physical description may or may not reveal significant findings. In any event, if asphyxia by aspiration is suspected, the pathologist should be advised and an autopsy ordered.